ABOUT DELTASSIST

Deltassist Family and Community Services Society was created in 1999 by the amalgamation of two long standing community services organizations – Deltassist Community Services Society and Delta Family Services Society – in an effort to provide integrated and enhanced family and community services to the residents of Delta and the surrounding areas.

SERVICES WE PROVIDE

Counselling:

Counselling services are provided by a highly skilled team of professionals, and are free of charge. Programs offered include an alcohol & drug program, alternatives to violence program, family support services, healthy families, nobody's perfect parenting program, young parent outreach (for teens) and a youth suicide prevention program.

Community:

We offer a number of programs and services for clients living in the Delta area. Services include information and referral, emergency food assistance, Christmas hampers and toy depot, income tax assistance, pro bono law clinics, and volunteer services.

Seniors:

Deltassist provides services for Delta seniors that help to combat loneliness, enhance seniors' independence and assist in making a healthier community for both seniors and volunteers. Volunteers provide shopping, phone support, driving (to and from medical appointments) and visiting services to support seniors who want to remain living independently.
